Third Condition

The Great Conditional Challenge

Directions. Work in groups. Read the three “if” clauses below. Choose one of the three clauses and then try to make as many third conditional sentences as possible that follow from the if clause you have chosen. The group with the most conditional sentences wins the challenge.

Look at the example below.

If I had studied harder when I was in high school,

If I had studied harder when I was in high school, I would have gotten better marks.

If I had gotten better marks, I would have gone to a better university.

If I had gone to a better university, I would have applied to Medical School.

If I had gone to medical school, I would have become a doctor.

If I had become a doctor, I would have gone to Africa and helped a lot of people.

Etc.....

Now choose one of the following:

1. If I had learned English as a child,.....
2. If I had won the million dollar lottery five years ago,.....
3. If I had been alive in the 19th century,
